DEVELOPING NEW WRITERS

JDN aims to develop a new generation of writers that can impact the world with their writings. Writing with a purpose is very important, and developing new writers is crucial for the growth and diversity of literature. Providing resources and support for aspiring writers can help them improve their skills, gain confidence in their writing skills, and achieve excellence in this art.

JDN offers workshops, writing groups, and mentoring programs to encourage new writers and give them the tools they need to encourage writers of all backgrounds to participate and share their stories.

JDN Publications and EDUCATE Publishing believe that the next generation of writers can bring new perspectives and voices to the literary world.

EDUCATE PUBLISHING

EDUCATE Publishing, a trademark of JDN Publications, offers a range of publishing services, editing, consulting, creative writing workshops, Spanish voice-over recordings, and ghostwriting. Our focus is on creating Social Emotional Learning (SEL) materials for all ages. We provide a branded SEL Curriculum translated into multiple languages. Our Summer Special Edition includes a 5-week Journal featuring 5 topics from our Challenging My Ego® Curriculum. This curriculum covers social-emotional learning, multi-racial sensitivity, equity, conflict resolution strategies, mental health awareness, and prevention techniques. It aims to instill core values and lifelong learning skills in students, empowering them to enhance their lives and become better individuals.

Edna Isaac emphasizes the urgent need to re-educate our children with universal common sense values and basic concepts that have been forgotten in today's culture of hate. To address this need, EDUCATE PUBLISHING, a subdivision of JDN, presents CHALLENGING MY EGO®. This product aims to provide a solution by offering educational materials that promote social-emotional learning and instill important values in children. For more information, please contact JDN Publications at 1 Taunton Green, Ste. 11, Taunton, MA 02780, or visit our websites www.jdnpublications.com, www.educatepublishing.net. You can also reach us via email at jdnpublications@gmail.com, educatepublishingma@gmail.com, or challengingmyego@gmail.com.

Challenging My EGO[®]

In this 5 Week-Journal, a Summer Program Special Edition, you will find only five of the topics that the Challenging My Ego[®] Curriculum has on.

Your child will enjoy this journal in a fun and educational way, where they can also write in their weekly planner. Each week they will have and learn specific goals that will help them reflect on their relationships with others. With the weekly challenge, they will learn how to add value and respect to those around them. In a world where hate reigns, the Challenging My Ego journal comes precisely to help develop social emotional values that will positively impact their world.

Through this journal, they will learn that it is not only about themselves but about all of us as a society. Let's start enjoying our adventure. It will be unforgettable!

A COMMUNITY FORGOTTEN BY SOCIETY THE LEPROSY

Our hearts were broken into pieces as we saw and heard the stories of our leprosy community. Both society and the government have them in total abandonment at the mercy of God and the compassion of those who wish to help. We brought medical supplies, but it was like a drop in the ocean because there was so much need in this community. Let us pray and help change things in their favor.

PARTNERING WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS TO HELP THOSE IN NEED

Matthew 10:8

Quotes Jesus, who said, 'Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely you give.'

Giving Back To Our Communities

Giving back to the community is crucial for several reasons.

- Firstly, it helps those in need and improves their quality of life.
- Secondly, it fosters community and encourages people to work together towards a common goal.
- Thirdly, it can also positively impact the giver, providing a sense of fulfillment and purpose. Whether volunteering time, donating money, or simply being kind to others, giving back is a valuable way to make a difference in the world.
